Iran-Contra Inquiry

The independent counsel investigating the Iran-contra affair, Lawrence E. Walsh, is believed to be preparing for imminent indictments. Yesterday, he summoned the widow of William J. Casey, the Director of Central Intelligence, before the grand jury.

Sophia Casey, accompanied to the Federal District Court by her daughter, Bernadette, was asked about her husband's knowledge of the arms-for-hostages deal and subsequent channeling of profits to the Nicaraguan rebels, according to sources with knowledge of the investigation.
